JUST PASSIONS is a frank and fearless account of how every Australian can be inspired to make their own difference. Using ten personal experiences in ten incredibly changing areas including technology, work, family, ageing, disability, women, social capital, lifestyles and charity, Rhonda Galbally tells the stories about her own and other's outspoken advocacy, learning and leadership. With loads of insightful and funny reflections on working, loving and living - from the world stage to the back blocks of local communities - this book challenges you to get involved, speak out - and not be afraid of the consequences.
